

An example of a phonics lesson

1. Revisit and review previous sounds	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Go through flash cards – use the jolly phonics actions <input type="checkbox"/> Listen to the jolly phonics song on you tube and or <input type="checkbox"/> Dictate the sounds taught and the children write them down
2. Teach the new sound – including differentiation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Teach the phoneme with the action. <input type="checkbox"/> Teacher says words using this sound (link to topic) Remember to be creative and encourage the development of rich language. <input type="checkbox"/> Model writing the sound <input type="checkbox"/> Children use their magic finger to trace in the air /on backs etc. <input type="checkbox"/> Write the sound on white boards focusing on the correct letter formation. Give a time limit - 1 minute
3. Blend words	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Select words vc/cvc using the sound (5) <input type="checkbox"/> Include ‘nonsense words’
4. Segment words	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Say the word then the sounds <input type="checkbox"/> Have a go at writing the word <input type="checkbox"/> Teacher models the word on the board.
5. Apply	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> The teacher models a sentence. <input type="checkbox"/> Make a physical sentence using word cards. Encourage talking about punctuation.
6. Opportunities for application	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Words on Lego, bricks for building, on coins...link it to your topic – pirate treasure, bricks for the pigs house etc. <input type="checkbox"/> Word games – Kim’s game using words <input type="checkbox"/> Writing table – sounds and words displayed <input type="checkbox"/> Chalks, paintbrushes, writer’s tool boxes <input type="checkbox"/> Sound table – objects and labels to match the sound <input type="checkbox"/> Hunting for words <input type="checkbox"/> Passwords on the classroom door